5. GMOs: We declare that all above-mentioned products are excluded from the scope of regulation and therefore are not covered by REGULATION No 1829/2003 and No 1830/2003 EC in current consolidated version, from which it follows: The products are not GM or not the origin of the GM if they contain less than 0.9% random GM material. Animal products (for example milk and whey powder) don't have to be labeled GMO in general, even if they come from animals fed with GMO feed. That's why the use of GMO components in animal feeding cannot be ruled on the principle. That's the reason why we cannot declare our products „without GMO“.
